

The Williamsburg Botanical Garden
Presents A Kids (and Adults and Families) Welcome Program

FLYING WITH MONARCHS

Part I: "It's Not Easy Being A Butterfly"

With

Barb Dunbar

Virginia Master Naturalist and Master Gardener

Saturday, July 24, 2010
(Rain Date July 31)

10:00 - 11:00 am

Freedom Park - 5535 Centerville Road
(Intersection of Centerville & Longhill Roads)

They may be the most beautiful and recognizable butterfly in Virginia, but their life story is even more amazing than their regal good looks. Join Barb and learn about the life of Monarchs, and find out why there are things we can do to make their lives just a little bit easier.

Admission is Free.

Bring a water bottle and dress for the outdoors.
